"By Mastering the Commercial Audition Process" Tricia Homer - Casting Director/ Acting Coach

Saturday, November 5th

In this workshop students will learn to master the skills of the commercial audition...giving them an edge in this competitive field.

The class will focus on the following:

Camera and cue card techniques
Blocking & hitting the mark
Working with props
Spokesperson roles
Improvisational skills
Working with other actors and products

Students will demonstrate their understanding of the class by creating a sixty second spot for an imaginary product. The camera will be used during this class.

Lunch will be provided

Sunday, November 6th

9:30 to 1:30

"By Creative Use of the Teleprompter" Tricia Homer / Coach Mike
Shannon / prompter Operator

In this day and age, auditions are moving at the pace of technology. More auditions are using equipment such as a teleprompter to expedite the audition process. If an actor does not have the necessary comprehensive training and experience using a teleprompter, moving forward with the audition process is unlikely. This is an intensive workshop which affords actors the techniques necessary to master the use of a teleprompter, through hands on experience. The actors will also get the opportunity to put their newly acquired techniques to use by practicing with an actual teleprompter during the workshop to give the actor some real world experience.

12:30 Lunch will be provided

1:00 to 1:30 60 second commercial spots will be performed for parents.
